

Notice on Dormitory Application and Registration for the Fall Semester 2026

(Mid-Semester Move-in)

※ Mid-semester move-in and short-term stays during the midterm examination period will be operated on a trial basis.

During the trial period, the operation results and usage status will be reviewed to determine whether the program will continue and to consider detailed operating procedures for future semesters.

1. Eligibility

Undergraduate and graduate students currently enrolled in the 2026 Fall Semester who have no record of moving into the dormitory during the 2026 Fall Semester

A. Applicants Ineligible for Dormitory Admission

- 1) Students who have a record of moving into the dormitory during the 2026 Fall Semester (Students who have moved out before the end of the semester are not eligible to apply; students who declined their selected room before moving in are eligible to apply.)
- 2) Students who have received a dormitory eviction/suspension sanction within the past six months
- 3) Students with a GPA of 1.74 or below (on a 4.3 scale)
- 4) Students whose cumulative merit/demerit score is -10 points or lower
- 5) Students who have been subject to disciplinary action under university regulations
- 6) Students on a leave of absence (students scheduled to return from leave in Fall 2026 are eligible to apply)
- 7) Students deemed unsuitable for dormitory life

A. Application Procedure

(PC only / Mobile devices are not supported)

Access the Yonsei Portal (portal.yonsei.ac.kr) → Login → Academic Information System → Dormitory → Dormitory Application → Review the information and submit your application.

※ Your application is considered complete only after you click "Final Submit."

B. Dormitory Assignment

If the number of applicants exceeds the capacity of a dormitory hall, applicants may be assigned to a different dormitory hall than the one requested or may not be selected.

C. Selection Criteria

1) Merit and Demerit Points (Highest Priority)

- Evaluated based on the most recent semester in which the student resided in the dormitory.
- Definition of the most recent dormitory semester: The last semester during which the student lived in the dormitory.

Example: If a student lived in the dormitory in Spring 2024 and is applying again for Spring 2026, the merit and demerit point record from Spring 2024 will be used for evaluation.

2) Academic Performance

- Evaluated based on the semester immediately preceding admission.
- If applicants have the same merit point total, those with higher academic performance will be given priority.
- Definition of the semester immediately preceding admission: The most recent semester in which the student was enrolled, regardless of whether the student resided in the dormitory.

Example: If a student was enrolled through Fall 2024, took a leave of absence, and then returns in Fall 2026, the GPA from Fall 2024 will be used for evaluation.

4. Dormitory Fees and Facilities

※ Maeji Hall 3 is the only residence hall with 24-hour access, including for graduate students. Access to other residence halls is subject to curfew regulations.
